Gina Lee-Olukoya (Guest Speaker)

I. Roll Call and Open Discussion

II. Guest Speaker: Gina Lee-Olykoya, Director of the Office of Civic Life

- Works to help engage students and support community work. Idea of collective social change
- 10 Areas of Social Change: volunteerism and service learning, civic discourse and dialogue, social entrepreneurship, community relationship building and development, impact research, sustainable development and socially responsible behavior, democratic engagement and service learning, and social activism and advocacy.
- Train and educate students relating to volunteering, connect them with partners in multiple communities.
- Awards “legacy scholarships” to participating students (~500 each year)
- Team goal: work with Gina to future charge and AASHE points of implementing university policy to fund staff for volunteer hours, rather than using their PTO.

III. iCAP Engagement Kick-Off Poster

- See added content in Box “iCAP 2025 Planning” folder
- Maddie reached out to Alpha Phi Omega, a service fraternity
 - We should take advantage of Greek Life for volunteerism

IV. Review of 2020 Objectives

- Success in updating iCAP portal

V. 2025 Objectives

- Prepare and go over during the April meeting

VI. Comparative Analysis for Residence Halls Update

- Brodie suggests that we should convey to school that we will share our results with them so that they are incentivized to participate.

Action Items:

Update team poster content document (all), review 2020 objectives (all), update team on ADV 498
